TRAFFIC TICKET INSTRUCTIONS

Ignoring Your Ticket Will Cost You

Make sure to respond to your ticket within 30 days to avoid consequences like additional fines or a license suspension.

Your Options

You have 30 days to respond to your traffic ticket. Choose one of the following four options and inform the Clerk of Courts online, by mail, phone, or in person.

Option 1: Pay Your Ticket

- If you cannot pay the whole amount at once, a Clerk of Courts can help you set up a payment plan you can afford.
- By paying your ticket, you are admitting guilt and you may get points added to your license. Points can make your car insurance more expensive, and if you get too many, your license could be suspended.

Option 2: Show Proof of Compliance

If you receive a ticket for not having your license, registration, or proof of insurance with you, there are two ways to have your case dismissed:

- Submit "proof of compliance" to a Clerk of Courts and pay $10, or
- Use Online Case Resolution and pay $5 by visiting www.jud11.flcourts.org/About-the-Court/Court-Divisions/Traffic/Online-Case-Resolution

Option 3: Request a Hearing or Trial

If you request a hearing or trial, you must attend or else your license may be suspended. You can sign up to receive updates and reminders about some court events by text or email at enotify.flcourts.org.

Option 4: Go to Traffic School

Attending traffic school can help you avoid points on your license. To find a list of certified traffic schools, go to flhsmv.gov/driver-licenses-id-cards/education-courses

You need to pay your ticket and the traffic school fee. You have 120 days to attend a certified traffic school from the date you select this option.

Commercial driver's license (CDL) holders ticketed while driving a commercial vehicle are not eligible for traffic school.

Is Your License Suspended?

You can check why your license was suspended online at services.flhsmv.gov/dlcheck/

You can find out how much you owe by using the Miami-Dade County Clerk's "Traffic Online System" or "Criminal Justice Online System."

If your case has been sent to a collection agency, you have a few options:

- Visit a Clerk of Courts to remove yourself from collections and either pay what you owe, enroll in a payment plan, or file a motion.
- Pay $16 to set your case for trial if it's been between 31 and 180 days since you received your ticket.
- Pay the full amount you owe to the collection agency, including the additional 30% fee they charge. This may add points to your license.

Once your license suspensions are cleared, you can pay a fee at the Clerk of Courts to get your license reinstated. If you don't have your license or it's expired, visit a DMV to get it reinstated.

If you need help, you can call the Drive Legal Program for assistance at (305) 548-5363 or visit www.jud11.flcourts.org/Resource-Center/Traffic/Drive-Legal-Program

A Drive Legal Case Manager will review your driving history and outstanding tickets and provide you with a path to reinstatement.

Americans With Disabilities Act

If you have a disability that makes it hard for you to apply for a service or program offered by the Clerk of Courts, you can ask for help. To get help, contact the Court ADA Coordinator by calling (305) 349-7175. If you have trouble hearing or speaking, you can use the Florida Relay Service at 1-800-955-8771 or dial 711. If you need a Sign Language Interpreter, you must give at least 7 days notice to schedule one.
